International Participants

France

France Pavilion, 6,000-square-meter pavilion, is themed "The Sensual City", presenting a simple building with a big French-style garden inside. It is unique in terms of both form and technologies, and it will use the most advanced building materials and environmental protection technology. The focus area is a space of 180 square meters, equipped with flat screens and video-projectors. It is located at the end of the scenography circuit, on the first floor, right before the escalator which goes to the shops.
