International Participants

Russia

Russia will decorate its pavilion like a fairy-tale world, showing a comfortable city seen through children's eyes. The pavilion will be on a 6,000 square meters plot and feature 12 white towers inspired by traditional Russian women's costume. A 15-meter-tall central building will link the towers. The 20-meter towers, in white, red and gold, will duplicate the ancient Ural towns dating back 3,000 years ago, but given a modern touch with their irregular shapes. Inside the three-story building, there will be a display of scenes from the fairy tale "The Adventures of DUNNO and His Friends", written by children's author Nikolay Nosov. The pavilion theme is "New Russia: city and citizen".
