GW-BW-003 Beijing Bird Watching Tour ( 6 Days )

Day01/Arrive in Beijing

Arrival Beijing, transfer to Hotel in Beijing, overnight. (D)

Day02/Beijing

Visit the enchanting Summer Palace, one of China's largest and best-preserved royal gardens, where you can have a walk along the famous Long Corridor. In the afternoon, you will visit the Temple of Heaven, the place where the emperors of Ming and Qing Dynasties worshipped heaven and prayed for good harvest. A Peking Duck Dinner concludes your first full day activities in China. (B-L-D)

Summer Palace

You can see more than 20 kinds of birds such as spotted-necked doves, pond heron, night heron, wild ducks, woodpeckers and red-billed blue magpie in Summer Palace. Summer Palace is home to more birds than any other park in Beijing. If you have the entire day, you can go into the park through Liulangzhuang Gate and walk alongside the lake westward or northward in the morning, and walk eastward from Ruyi Gate at noon to the back hill. If you only have a half day, you can go inside from Ruyi Gate to the west causeway and later go to the back hill. The best places for birding are the west bank and northern part of the west causeway, as well as the east side of the back hill.

Tiantan Park ( Temple of Heaven )

Tiantan Park ( Temple of Heaven ) is a famous place for birdwatching in Beijing. Here is home to 90 kinds of birds in 31 categories. Among them, there are 10 species under second class state protection, and 12 kinds of under first class Beijing protection. The characteristic birds are swifts, Little Egrets, White-waist swifts and Dollarbirds.
