Hong Kong, Macao

Hong Kong, the Oriental Pearl, is an eclectic mix of the 21st century and ancient times, where modern skyscrapers rub shoulders with colonial buildings and traditional Chinese temples. Here you can find the delights of modern living alongside an abundance of reminders of its historic past. Hong Kong is a city for tourism, which is known as a fine place to visit for business, trade shows, convention, conference, shopping, food, recreation and entertainment.

Macao is situated at the sea coast of southeastern part of China to the west bank of the Pearl River Delta, surrounded by sea from three sides. Bordering on Guangdong Province, it locates 60km from Hong Kong and 145km from the city of Guangzhou.

Macao was the name given by the Portuguese as the Portuguese colonized this area in the middle 16th Century. It also became the perfect crossroad for the meeting of East and West cultures.
